SALVATION ARMY PROGRAM

Dr. Dyke on the Prodigal Son Eminent Clergyman at Monumental,

Services will be held in the Grace Street Presbyterian Church to-morrow morning and night, Rev. Dr. Wither-spoon, the pastor, preaching on both ccasions.

After the morning service the Lord's Supper will be observed, when new members will be received by the pastor and members of the seasion. Dr. Witherspoon will preach a sermon, and the choir will render music appropriate

At St. Mark's Episcopal Church Mr. Guy D. Christian, of St. John's Church, West Point, Va., will conduct the services and preach both morning and evening. The subject in the morning will be "Worship": text. St. Matt., II. 11: "And when they were come into the house they saw the young child with Mary, His mother, and fell down and worshiped Him; and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him gifts—gold and frankincense and myrrh." At night the subject will be "Peuce"; text. St. John, Xiv. 27: "My pence I give unto you." Mr. Christian will also conduct the services and preach at the Ascension Chapel, Highland Park, at 4:30 P. M. The Rev. Mr. Darst, rector of St. Mark's, will conduct the services and preach for Mr. Christian at West Point on Sunday.

GIRL BABY'S

Sight of Eye Destroyed by Disease— Tried Five Doctors but Grew Worse - In Agony Eight Months - Parents Discouraged, Until They Tried Cuticura Remedies

IN ONE WEEK ALL SORES DISAPPEARED

"Our little girl, one year and a half old, was taken with eczema or that was what the doctor said it was. We called in the family doctor and he gave some tablets and said she would be all right in a few days. The eczema grew worse and we called in doctor No. 2. He said she was teething, as soon as the toeth were through she would be all right. But she still grow worse. Doctor No. 3 said it was eczema. By this time she was nothing but a yellow greenish sore. Well, he said he could help her, so we let him try it about a week. One morning we discovered a little yellow pinple on one of her eyes. Of course we phoned for doctor No. 3. He came over and looked her over and said that he could not do anything more for her, that we had better take her to some eye specialist, since it was an ulcer. So we went to Oswego to doctor No. 4, and he said the eyesight was gone, but that he could help it. We thought we would try doctor No. 5. Well, that proved the same, only he charged $10 more than doctor No. 4. We were nearly discouraged. I saw one of the Cutioura advertisements in the paper and thought we would try the Cuticura Treatment, so I went and purchased a set of Cuticura Remedius, which cost me $1, and in three days our daughter, who had been sick about eight months, showed great improvement, and in one week all sores had disappeared. Of course it could not restore the eyesight, but if we had used Cuticura in time I am confident that it would have saved the eye. We think there is no remedy so good for any skin trouble or impurity of the blood as Cutioura. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Abbett, R. F. D. No. 9, Pulton, Oawugo Co. N. Y., August 17, 1900."

Novel Case of Blue.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ROCKINGHAM, N. C., April 12,-T RICKINGHIAM, N. C., April 12.—The case of James Blue has developed some peculiarfiles. He was under bond to appear at the Soptember term of the superior Court. In the meantime, the Legislature moved the term back to April. Blue claims that his bond was not forfelted by his failure to appear. The court has the matter under consideration, and he has been declared under new bond to appear later in the week. There are fifteen cases against him.

Orthodox Jews to this day religiously abstain from eating the nerve that fast ens the thigh-bone in its socket. That particular muscle is carefully extracted at the Hebrew abattoir. This is a traditional usage, serving to remind the eater of Jacob's wrestling-match. There is no law for it. It sprung from awe of the member in which the patriarch was wounded, and is a collateral evidence of the reality of the circumstance. GOIL GIVES JACOB AND YASHE BE CONTROLLED TO JACOB AND SERVED TO JACOB AND THE BE CONTROLLED TO JACOB AND THE BE CONTROLLED TO JACOB AND THE JACOB AND JACOB the reality of the circumstance.

He prevailed not against him. The Almighty often fails yet in His wrestling with the stubborn wills of men. There is an ultimate element of selfhood in man that can and does successfully assert itself against God. There is a central citadel of our being which Omnipotence never storms, and, as we are constituted, cannot successfully assault. The terms of Jesus message are yet, "If any man will (is willing consents, agrees to it) be My disciple, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me."

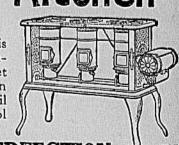

Grace is gradual. The full stature is attained by daily accretions of faith, prayer and service. But there are also periods in which, by an uncommon concentration of thought and effort, phenomenal progress may be made. That is the meaning of Jacob's experience on the bank of the foaming Jabbok. Jacob had grown much in grice since he saw the ladder of Bethel forty years before But in that one night of importunate mayor he made a surprising advance, the was knighted lifted to the only true and imperishable royalty. He became a prince.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

LEXINGTON, N. C., April 12.—The most admaging fire that Lexington has suffered in several years occurred this morning at 1:30, originating in the grocery store of Moton Loftin & Son.

The stock, together with that of the Lexington Housefurnishing Company, was totally destroyed. The block, with the exception of the corner, owned by Everhart & Co., was also a total loss. The stock of Everhart & Co. was damaged by the water and removal. The losses are as follows: Moton Loftin & Son. $25,000; Housefurnishing Company, $3,500; Everhart & Co., $2,000; W. F. Curry, owner of the building, $1,000. All was covered by insurance with the exception of building, on which there was only $1,000.

The adjoining property was saved by excellent work of the firemen, who did themselves proud, keeping the fire well under control. Four streams of of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Richmond, will address the meeting. His theme will be "A Withered Hand." It is expected that large audiences of men will attend both meetings.

Newspaper Tributes.

On the demise of the late Henry Clay Payne, a concern in New York gathered from the papers published throughout the United States 4.685 newspaper stories of the life and career of the deceased.

These items were carefully mounted on Irish linen leaves and bound in 6 volumes, 400 pages to the book. A cover of genuine seal was appropriately lettered in gold and the entire material, representing the work of many people for several months, has just been delivered to Mrs. Payne at Milwaukee.

Mr. Burrelle, who makes & specialty of this unique method of preserving family history, also compiled four volumes containing the letters, telegrams and cards of condolence received by the family, all constituting a family helricom that will be handed down to future genera-
